Smt. Manoramabai Mundle College of Architecture, Nagpur

NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Policy document of the college is being revised. I request you to please approve the following matter to be included in the document.

Code of Ethics

Smt. Manoramabai Mundle College of Architecture considers ethics as one of the pillars of education. Referring to master architects' works, inspiration from iconic architecture, understanding architectural style of well-known architects is encouraged by the institute, but at the same time nurturing one's originality is imbibed amongst our students. To validate this objective, SMMCA has established the Intellectual Property Right Cell in 2014. Periodic presentations, seminars and discussions are conducted to put across the importance, awareness and consequences of ethical and non-ethical conduct.

1. Architecture Design Studio:

- i. To check plagiarism in Architecture design studio- periodic progress review to be conducted.
- ii. The mentor allotted to each student will have continuous discussions with the students on design and check whether the suggestions/changes/modifications are incorporated by students.
- iii. If the student fails to incorporate the changes in design the mentor shall discuss the issue with the year coordinator.
- iv. All students have to appear for the external jury panel appointed by the college before presenting their work for the university viva.
- v. Due time shall be provided to students to incorporate suggestions received during external jury.

2. Research:

- i. For code of ethics, norms will be applicable as per the PhD scholar's RTMNU ordinance at the time of the admission

Submitted for your kind approval.
